TERRITORIAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

The following is the full text of the Democratic platform adopted by the convention held at Vancouver on the 5 h

1 That we are unalterably opposed to the dismemberment of the territory and are in favor of a state government at the earliest moment our population and wealth will justify the same

2. That we are unqualifiedly in favor of the extension of time for the completion of the main line and branch of the Northern Pacific railroad and that we recognize as enemies of the prosperity of our people all who oppose such extension

3 That the improvement of the Columbia Snake and other great rivers of our territory emptying into the sea are national works which should be prosecuted to an early completion

4. That we recognize the mutual dependence of labor and capital and deprecate all attempts to antagonize them in the combination of capital to control and the strikes of labor to resist this control as destructive of the true interests of both

5 That the present business depression and wide spread distress throughout the Union is chiefly attributable to the unwise measures of finance for which the Republican party is wholly responsible

6. That the policy of the government in relation to the Indian tribes on this coast the experience of the past demonstrates to be a failure and a change therein is imperatively demanded such an abandonment of the reservation system as will insure the breaking up of the tribal relations of the Indian or a [illegible] idation of all the reservations into one [illegible] control in order that the annual raids of the hostile bands and the murder ... may be effectually checked the peace and ... territory requir...

New System of Wagon Brakes.
TRULLINGER PATENT BRAKE.
NO SHOES TO WEAR OUT TIRES!
No Brake Bar used. Will hold a Wagon anywhere from Backing or going Forward.

THIS NEW BRAKE NOW BEING INTRODUCED by the inventor J C Trullinger is a combination of friction gear applied to the hub of a wagon. It is simple and light yet has more strength and durability than any other wagon brake now in use. It is so attached to the wagon that it is out of the way of the gearing yet always reliable and at hand when required. Any teamster or mechanic can see at once its utility and effective force to hold a load on a down grade or to prevent horse backing when required The Brake is made entirely of iron no wooden part being necessary as no brake bar is used hence it does not carry mud and is not affected by wet and muddy or icy roads.

We invite critical examination as we believe its merits can be demonstrated to any party who uses or understands a wagon brake

A DUTY OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT

A visit of observation to the Portland city jail on almost any one of these fine days will reveal to any person who takes an interest in the welfare of the community and who helps to bear its burdens a most interesting state of affairs He will see there from one to three dozen sturdy loafers living in good style at the public expense and enjoying themselves to the utmost They have their regular three meals a day are fed on bread and butter vegetables and meat tea and coffee at the public expense their diversions are card playing the daily papers amateur theatrical or circus performances and the like and altogether they find the jail about the most comfortable, agreeable and hospitable place they could possibly desire So excellent a residence is it that there is great inducement for them to commit petty offenses in order to obtain admission within its walls for this class are totally indifferent to shame and are in the best possible spirits and humor so long as they can get plenty to eat and are not obliged to work Why will a community permit so flagrant and abominable an abuse? There is great fault somewhere. The industry of the community labors both for its own bread and for that of these lazy sneaks and vagabonds Yet the city government, with these facts patent before it, applies no remedy though there is an easy remedy immediately at hand It should put these lazy loafers at work upon the public highway give them ten hours a day at breaking stone under the sun's summer rays, and punish by deprivation of food and by solitary imprisonment in darkness all who refuse to work The alternative should indeed be flogging but since the community has got so deep into notions of sentimental folly that objection would be raised to the only form of punishment which these vagabonds really dread, it should do the next best and most effective thing We are told there is some kind of disagreement between the common council and the police commissioners of the city, by which use of measures to compel these varlets to work is prevented In consequence the city jail is usually stowed full of great able bodied tramps and scamps, who find it a most excellent asylum and could desire nothing better Has not society burdens enough already without encouraging laziness, loaferism and petty crimes? If these men were kept hard at work upon the streets till the sweat of labor was drawn from them till their hands were blistered and their bones ached and meantime were poorly and even scantily fed withal, an increasing burden of society would begin at once to diminish If these fellows had to break stone on the streets every day under a hot sun instead of playing cards reading the daily papers and dancing in the city jail, does any one suppose the number of his class of offenders would be so large? Under the present system they are not punished at all but are even encouraged to go on in the perpetration of petty offences in order that they may be well taken care of These are some of 'the poor' which the organs of demagogues speak of with so much sympathy If our present city government will not do its duty it is time we should look for men who will

THE GREENBACK RECORD

The Cincinnati Gazette meets the cry for more greenbacks, which now waxes loud in many of the states, with a review of the Democratic record on the subject It says that to hear the Democrats of Ohio, since Thurman gave the key note of the present canvass, talking about greenbacks one would naturally suppose that party was the father of greenbacks that it had originated supported nursed, fed and protected them and that all other parties were their natural and trained enemies

Mr. Chase recommended the greenback currency in 1862 and the first legal tender act was passed by the house in February of that year Among the votes recorded against it are those of Pendleton Voorhees Vallandigham, and all that sort of politicians Turn to the official journal of congress and see what bitter words those men uttered against the greenback what evils they predicted would result from it how utterly unconstitutional it was how it would debase the nation in the estimation of the world ruin its credit and finally ruin the people Only seven Democrats voted for the issue of greenbacks, while eighty six Republicans were among the yeas

In 1866 every Democrat in the senate voted for contraction of the volume of greenback currency, and in the house at the same time every Democrat but one voted the same way

The supreme court, in its decision on the legal tender question delivered this view of the necessities of the case when the greenback was issued 'The public treasury was nearly empty and the credit of the government, if not stretched to its utmost tension, had become nearly exhausted Moneyed institutions had advanced largely of their means, and more could not be expected of them They had been compelled to suspend specie payments Taxation was inadequate to pay even the interest on the debt already incurred and it was impossible to await the income of additional taxes The necessity was immediate and pressing The army was unpaid There was then due to the soldiers in the field nearly a score of millions of dollars The requisitions from the war and navy departments for supplies exceeded $50 000 000, and the current expenditure was over $1,000 000 per day The entire amount of coin in the country, including that in private hands, as well as that in banking institutions was insufficient to supply the need of the government three months had it all been poured into the treasury Foreign credit we had none We say nothing of the overhanging paralysis of trade and of business generally, which threatened loss of confidence in the ability of the government to maintain its continued existence and therewith the complete destruction of all remaining national credit It was at such a time and in such circumstances that congress was called upon to devise means for maintaining the army and navy for securing the large supplies of money needed and indeed for the preservation of the government created by the constitution It was at such a time and in such an emergency that the legal tender acts were passed

It is strange indeed that a political party which could not see reason under these circumstances to support the greenback currency wants now when there is no occasion for it to push inflation of greenbacks upon the country

Gen Dabney Maury ex confederate who served in the regular army up to the rebellion has been writing in favor of the annexation of Mexico to the United States He [illegible] may expect to have to call out 200,000 [illegible] volunteers and to spend may be $500 000,000 and to be busy two or three years before our Mexican protectorate will be finally established But he thinks it should be done because 'it will please the southern people so much and they have not had any pleasure in this government for some time All of which is ridiculous. The country wants no protectorate over Mexico, having as much as it can do to attend to its own turbulent classes Nor does it quite appear how the movement could please the southern people

We have no doubt that the resolution adopted by the Democratic territorial convention at Vancouver relative to the Northern Pacific railroad fairly expresses the views of a vast majority of the people of Washington territory irrespective of party The policy of the resolution is in direct opposition to the course which Delegate Jacobs has pursued If the Republican convention do not pledge its candidate in favor of a railroad as strongly and unequivocally as the Democratic convention has done he will have small chance of an election Washington will repudiate the Mitchell-Jacobs policy as signally as Oregon has done

An itinerating showman known as Mart Taylor who lives by practising impositions of various kinds on the country, is haranguing on our streets nightly as a champion of labor He is emphatically one of that numerous class of labor reformers who work with their mouths and manage somehow to get a living out of the laboring classes without returning any proper equivalent for it Of course he echoes the sentiment The Chinese must go Suppose the Chinese should go, and nobody were left who would do any more work than such labor reformers as Mart Taylor what then?

It is intimated that an effort is likely to be made to get a resolution through the legislature approving the course of Senator Mitchell on the railroad question Should the legislature do this it ought also to re elect Mr Mitchell by all means This railroad question is the one subject of paramount interest to our state If Mr Mitchell has been right upon it he is not only entitled to re-election but the state should have his services for the future No personal piques, no scheme of partisanship ought to be placed before this great matter of securing a railroad

If one may judge from the snarling tone of the recent writings of the wife beater of Astoria the neighbors are likely soon to be unwilling witnesses of another of those little scenes Matters evidently are tending toward a crisis

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7, 1878.

CITY.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.—From the Vancouver Independent of September 5th the following is taken in reference to the above named institution which was destroyed by fire last Sunday afternoon: "The Sisters of Charity bought the building (which was a mere shell and erected in 1855,) on the 6th of May, 1861, entirely refitting and repairing it. It was successively used as an orphan and lunatic asylum, till the lunatic patients were transferred to Steilacoom when it was transformed into a hospital. In 1868 a large addition to the building was erected; and in 1872 the then existing hospital was nearly doubled in size by the addition of a new building at the east end of the hospital. For many years it was the only hospital in Oregon or Washington, and drew its patients from far and near. As Portland grew and built its hospitals its importance as a public institution declined. It cared for during the years it has been used as a hospital about 1,500 patients, male and female; besides it has been the home of about 50 poor old men. Considering the amount of blankets, bedspreads, clothing, etc., burned, and the furniture damaged and destroyed, the total loss will not fall short of $5,000."

SHIPPING BEEF.—The Astoria paper says: "During his late visit to the bay city Dr. Kinney made arrangements with parties there by which fresh beef will be shipped to San Francisco in refrigerators on the steamers. The quantity, however, will be small. A refrigerator compartment is completed to be used in connection with this enterprise, and the first shipment will be made on the Great Republic this trip. Ten tons of ice are now ready to go into the refrigerator on completion. The beef cattle are here also and killing has begun. This is another one of the important projects for the benefit of Oregon."

FOUND DEAD.—The body of an old man named John Smith was found a short distance below the city yesterday. Coroner Cook was notified and held an inquest over the body. From appearances Smith had been dead several days. After hearing the testimony, the jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by poison, supposed to have been self-administered with suicidal intent. When found the fingers were clutching the grass as if he died in convulsions. Smith, from appearance, was about 50 years of age. He formerly worked at Astoria.

A SPLENDID NUMBER.—A few more copies of the WEEKLY OREGONIAN of this date are left and parties desiring them should call early to-day. This number is unusually interesting, containing as it does, in addition to the usual full telegraphic reports of stirring events in all parts of the world, the local events of the week, spicy correspondence on various topics, the proceedings of the M. E. conference at Salem, General Howard's council with the Umatilla Indians, market reports, etc., etc. It is a faithful mirror of the times both at home and abroad.

INFAMOUS.—A few days ago a number of hoodlums attacked and drove from their homes several industrious and inoffensive Chinamen who cultivate vegetables out on Potter creek, a short distance west of the city. These young vandals broke in the windows of the cabin, discharged firearms at the frightened celestials, and destroyed in a most wanton manner the vegetables. The injured Chinamen have reported these proceedings to the authorities, and the perpetrators are being sought for.

IN LIMBO.—Several years ago a man named Jake Wolf was indicted by the grand jury of this county for passing tools through to the prisoners confined in the county jail. Before he could be arrested, Wolf caught wind of the proceedings and skipped the country. Thinking that the "little affair" had blown over and passed from public memory, Wolf returned to this city a few days ago. He was recognized at once and arrested. Wolf now gazes sadly through cruel prison bars.

FINE WHEAT.—Mr. Thomas Martin, of Yamhill county, left at this office yesterday a large bunch of wheat which proves conclusively the truth of the old saying: "Yamhill against the world." There are 50 stalks of grain grown from one kernel. The variety is known as the old-fashioned white winter wheat. Some of the heads are five inches long and contain 140 grains each. On a fair estimate 6,000 grains have been produced from one grain.

TOO MANY PUPILS.—From the report of the number of pupils in attendance at the public schools of the city, published elsewhere, it will appear that Miss Holman has 71 in her room. This is too large a number for one teacher to do justice to, a fact which the directors have recognized, and made arrangements for relieving her of a large number. This arrangement will go into effect next Monday.

TEMPORARY CHANGE.—The condition of repair upon the chapel connected with the new Unitarian church necessitates change of place for holding services for the present, and the trustees have secured the use, Sunday forenoons, of the Turn Halle on Fourth and Yamhill streets. Rev. Mr. Eliot will meet his congregation at 11 o'clock to-morrow at the hall and speak upon "Vacation Experiences."

BARBECUE AND PICNIC.—There will be a grand barbecue and picnic at the Canyon Gardens to-morrow. The Northwestern band will be in attendance and furnish some choice music during the day. Dancing will commence at 1 o'clock sharp. Admission 50 cents; ladies free. At 3 o'clock there will be a grand parade of the ox that is to be slaughtered. An interesting time may be anticipated.

THE "S. G. REED."—The new steamboat, S. G. Reed, being completed by the Oregon Steam Navigation company will be a model of beauty. Although not finished off in the elaborate and magnificent style of the Wide West, she will be neat, convenient and comfortable for passengers. She is to have excellent power, and will glide through the water like a swan.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.—Thursday evening a meeting was held by the members of Willamette engine Co., No. 1, at which time two committees were appointed. One committee is to attend to furnishing the new engine house. The other committee is to prepare for a grand house-warming on the occasion of their removal, one month hence.

LETTERS REMAINING IN WELLS, FARGO & CO.'S OFFICE.—J. G. Blake, A. J. Dufur, Mrs. A. M. Davidson, No. 52 First St., F. W. Grimm, Mr. Horsford, W. H. Howard, Fred Hirsch, Emil Kirchhoff, Wm. Y. Knewlands, Mrs. Mary A. McCann, Capt. J. Mullan, Thos. Mallon, Mrs. E. G. McKay, Will McCown & Co., Miss Anna Ryan.

GERMAN INDEPENDENT SCHOOL.—Owing to a serious illness of Prof. Stebinger, the reopening of this school had to be delayed a week. A competent lady teacher, capable of teaching both English and German, having now been engaged, studies will be resumed at the above school on Monday next.

QUICK PASSAGE.—Capt. Kerr, of the British ship Martin Scott, writes to a friend in Astoria that he made the voyage to Queenstown in 114 days, beating the Melpomone's time several days. We are pained to hear that Capt. Kerr's eldest daughter died about two months prior to his arrival in Liverpool.

"SEA WAIF" ARRIVED.—The brig Sea Waif arrived at this port yesterday morning from Honolulu, and lies moored at the foot of B street. The Sea Waif comes consigned to Allen & Lewis, and brings the following cargo: 650 kegs sugar; 150 bags rice.

LINES DOWN.—The telegraph wires broke south of Chico yesterday afternoon, and had not been repaired up to a late hour last night, which accounts for lack of full dispatches this morning. The line will be O. K. at an early hour to-day.

CAPSIZED—NARROW ESCAPE.—While Mr. John A. Beck, M. Miller and two other persons whose names we were unable to ascertain, were out sailing last evening about — o'clock, they narrowly escaped finding watery graves. When a short distance below the foot of Ross' Island the boat was capsized and the occupants were thrown into the water. Fortunately the boat upset near the shore, and by making strenuous exertions the men managed to beach her. Before reaching the shore, however, two of the men came near drowning. It was a very close call.

BASE BALL.—The clubs to-day will be: T. Raleigh, Whiting, Wilcox, Capen, Luelling, Curry, Strong, Speck, Thompson and Buchtel for the base ballists, and Hall, Henderson, Creighton, Crocker, Webb, Ellinger, Gilman, Kinross and Avery for the cricketers. Game in East Portland, to commence at 3 P. M. sharp.

DONATIONS.—We are requested to state that all persons having donations to make for yellow fever sufferers can leave them with Wesley Jackson or at the office of J. Bachman & Bro.

SOCIAL PARTY.—A social party was given at Miller's Hall, Milwaukie, last evening, to a visiting sister of Mrs. W. A. Luelling. Quite a number of Portlanders were in attendance.

FUNERAL DISCOURSE.—The funeral ceremony of A. P. Stansberry will be preached at the M. E. church, East Portland, on Sunday, Sept. 8th, at 11 A. M., by Dr. Isaac Dillon.

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED.—Any amount forwarded to THE OREGONIAN office in aid of the yellow fever sufferers will be handed to the executive committee in this city.

DAILY FREIGHT TRAINS.—From and after the 7th of September daily freight trains will be resumed on the Oregon and California Railroad.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.

Rev. J. T. Wolfe will preach at the Taylor street church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and C. V. Anthony in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

First Baptist church, corner of Fourth and Alder.—Divine service in the morning, conducted by the pastor. Sunday school concert in the evening, beginning at 7 o'clock. Strangers made welcome.

Congregational Church, J. A. Cruzan, pastor.—Morning sermon, "The Mind of Christ in Us." Evening sermon, "A Few Plain Facts about an Old Fashioned Obsolete Word, Stealing." Seats free and a cordial welcome.

The beautiful choral service will be resumed in St. Stephen's chapel on next Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock. Seats free. The chapel is undergoing gradual improvement, and when finished will be one of the handsomest places of worship on the coast.

Unitarian Church, Rev. T. L. Eliot, pastor.—Services for the next six or eight weeks will be held in Turn Halle, Fourth and Yamhill streets at 11 A. M. Sunday school at 12:30. The public is cordially invited. Pastor's office for the present is with G. W. Burrage, at the courthouse.

Lutheran Church.—Services in one of the Scandinavian languages every Sabbath in the S. E. Lutheran church in East Portland, at 10 o'clock A. M., and in the hall over the Savings Bank, First street, opposite the Oregon Bakery, Portland, at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. A. E. Fridrichsen, pastor.

BRIEF NOTES.

Warm and smoky.

Nothing heard from Johnson yet.

East Portland is rapidly improving.

A number of legislators are in the city.

Next Monday the trouble will begin at Salem.

Remember the meeting of the executive committee this evening at the council chamber.

Chief Besser has received a photograph of Johnson from San Francisco, from the authorities. It seems that he is well known in that city.

A crazy fellow named Waters, who said he had not eaten anything for six days, was arrested by Officer Hudson in the woods south of town, and was sent by order of the county judge to the poor house.

Himes, the printer, has just struck off for general distribution some very handsome cards. On one side is a very neatly printed plat of the city of Portland. It was a pen sketch executed by C. B. Talbot and transferred by the Heliotype process.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Mooney & Valentine renew their acquaintance with the public, as will be seen by announcement. New goods just received.

Special attention is called to new ad. of Mr. A. Bartsch. The pianos for which he is agent need no recommendation at our hands.

Comstock & Pfluger, who will shortly open in Centennial block, shall have our attention in a few days, our columns being crowded.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

A. Phillips, drunk, $10; Harry Woods, assault with a dangerous weapon, continued; Wm. Allen, drunk, $5; D. Bartot, disorderly, 10 days; W. P. Dervine, drunk, $5; Frank Wood, disorderly, 10 days; John Black, drunk, $10; Henry Ducrow, disorderly, 10 days; Jos. Mullen, drunk, $20; Jas. Wood, disorderly, 10 days; F. Wilson, disorderly, 10 days; Harry Wilson, disorderly, 10 days; Ed. Glennen, drunk and disorderly, $15.

PERSONAL.

Hon. Frank Clarke, of Washington territory, gave us a call yesterday.

The following persons arrived in this city Thursday evening from Eastern Oregon: Hons. I. I. Haines, G. C. Chandler and W. R. Curtis, of Baker; M. Jasper, Jas. H. Slater, Jas. H. Hendershott and Jos. Shinn, of Union; J. E. Turner editor of the East Oregonian.

CANCER CURED.—Mr. Wm. Greene, whose advertisement will be found in another column, is at present in the city, and is prepared to cure the worst cases of cancer. Mr. Greene has a new and infallible remedy which removes these terrible and repulsive plague spots without pain or the loss of a drop of blood. Mr. Greene does not profess to be able to remove all cancers; but any which are local and external and are not too far gone will yield to his treatment. Birth marks, spots and tumors can also be removed and cured in a few days. He wishes the public to understand that where no cure is effected no fee will be charged. As will be observed, Mr. Greene has a number of testimonials from the most reliable men in the state bearing evidence of his skill and the effectiveness of his remedy. All persons affected with cancer, etc., should not fail to give Mr. Greene an early call.

For a good Sunday dinner you are referred to Pierre Manciet & Co.

Frank Fabre has re-opened on Front street just north of A. Call and see him.

Fresh arrivals by every steamer of all the latest styles in fine chip and straw Hats for ladies and misses, at P. E. Brigham's, 71 First street.

The best friend to sympathize with is a Steinway & Son's Piano. Albert Bartsch, on Third street, opposite Taylor street church, is selling these true friends very reasonable.

Davidson Brothers step to the front with a big reduction in the prices of photo work. Card photographs $1 50 and cabinets $3 per dozen. Their special artist for outside work—Mr. A. H. Wulzen—has no equal in the state.

MILITARY NOTES.

[Vancouver Independent.]

General Sawtelle has returned to Vancouver from the Umatilla council.

Surgeon Ely McClellan left Vancouver for Fort Lapwai on Monday morning.

The Arizona troops brought up to fight Indians are already on their way back to their regular stations.

Company I, 12th Infantry, Capt. Thompson, passed down the river last Friday, returning to San Francisco from the late Indian war.

A temporary camp is to be established and maintained during the coming winter near Umatilla Agency. Capt. Evan Miles, of the 21st Infantry, is to be assigned to command of the same.

Gen. Howard, with Major Mizner's command, has gone to Priest's Rapids to interview Moses, who has promised to meet him there. The general is expected back some time next week. The troops belonging to the garrison here will probably return about the same time.

One hundred and forty-eight recruits arrived at this point late on Tuesday, coming from California on the Oregon, and brought by the Vancouver from the mouth of the Willamette to Vancouver. They were under command of Col. D. Perry, 1st Cavalry, and Lieut. H. F. Hancock, 2d Infantry, and are to be assigned mainly to the 21st Infantry, which regiment is to be filled up to 6 men per company.

LEBANON ITEMS.

Our occasional correspondent at the above place sends the following under date of September 5:

Our farmers have about one more week's work and harvest will be over.

Improvements still go forward, notwithstanding the cry of hard times.

The citizens are now moving for a telegraph line from Albany to Lebanon, and, doubt not that the line will be in working order within sixty days.

The St. Charles Hotel has recently been overhauled and remodeled and now presents quite a respectable appearance, adding materially to its general exterior. While the band, or city hall is being finished up in grand style, inside and out.

Dr. Foley's new two story drug store may truly be called a "way up" structure, as it rears its towering apex high above all other buildings in the town; and for symmetry and display of architectural skill is second to no wood building in the country. The lower rooms are now being hard finished throughout and will soon receive the shelving and counters.

A meeting of the citizens of Lebanon was called on the 31st August, to consider the propriety of incorporating the town. A committee on charter was appointed consisting of S. H. Claughton, J. L. Gilbert, F. M. Miller, C. H. Ralston and A. Ervin. The committee after having performed the duty assigned them, assembled the citizens on the 4th inst., and presented their report which was unanimously adopted.

All kinds sewing machines repaired by John Barbey, 32 Yamhill street.

Thousands have partaken of the delicious coffee made at Barnes', Central Market.

Another new lot of lace bibs, from 25cts and upwards, at Mrs. Chas. Tichner's, Portland, Oregon.

Fifty five pieces silks, in all colors, at M. Franklin Bro. & Co's, 125 First street, next to First National bank.

Just received 1,000 children's 10, 15 and 25 cent purses at Mrs. Chas. Tichner's, corner of First and Yamhill streets.

To-day go by Abell's Photographic Gallery and examine the latest show of Photographs displayed by this artist. The prices and work are sure to draw patronage.

SPIRITUALISM.—At 141 First Street, room 12, Dr. Walter Hyde, healing and developing medium. Free consultations daily. Mediums' seance every evening at 7 o'clock.

REMOVAL.—Edwards & Birmingham have removed their stock of furniture to the spacious warerooms over their former place of business in Centennial block, and are opening out a splendid assortment of furniture which they offer at very low prices. Call and be convinced.

HONORS TO AN AMERICAN MANUFACTURER.—A grand testimonial medal from the Societe beaux Arts, Paris, has been received from Steinway & Sons, New York, and accompanied by the following remark from the president: "The pianos of Steinway & Son appear to me, as well as to all the artists who have tried them, superior to all that have been made to this day in the entire world." These beautiful pianos, which are the leading instruments of the whole world and the favorites of all the first class pianists can be procured by calling at Albert Bartsch's, sole agent, 209 Third street, between Taylor and Salmon, Portland, Oregon.

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world. It is entirely your own fault, and there is only one excuse for you—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of head, nervous prostration, low spirits, etc. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a Druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. Three doses will relieve you.

Dr. Mintie's Vegetable Nephreticum.

Does it cure all? No! It is intended for diseases of the Kidney and Bladder. This great Tonic supplies a want long felt by a certain class of sufferers, and is taking a high rank among remedial agents in this country. First. Because it is made SPECIALLY for kidney and Bladder complaints; the different ingredients of which it is composed acting promptly upon the muscular and mucous coats of these organs. Second. The combination is the result of large experience and careful study, both of the organs and their diseases. Third. The best materials which are purely vegetable are selected and used. Its main factor in removing inflammation of the Kidneys or Bladder, pain of heaviness in the back and loins with drowsiness and feeling of languor, the Nephreticum will give immediate relief and a free use a permanent cure by strictly following directions. Price, $1 25.

Dr. Mintie's English Dandelion Pills.

Do they cure every thing? No. They are intended for diseases that result from an inactive, poisoned and deranged liver. Symptoms of a disordered liver—dull pain in the head and shoulders, loss of appetite, costive tongue, costive bowels, sick headache, drowsiness, weight in the stomach after eating, with a dizzy and fluttering heart, with low spirits, loss of energy, irritability, and foreboding of evil . . . . . Many of the leading citizens of Portland, from experience will vouch as to the superior virtue and value of these two specialties . . . . . . per box. To be obtained of all druggists.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE.

Last evening a meeting of the committee appointed Thursday evening to canvass the city for the purpose of raising means in aid of the yellow fever sufferers, was held at the council chamber.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Wesley Jackson.

On motion, Jos. Bachman was chosen secretary.

A motion was made that the money collected by the committee be sent to San Francisco. The motion was promptly and unanimously voted down.

The committee then submitted their report, which was as follows:

First district, $2,500; second district, $856 10; third district, $457 50. Total, $4,000.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the treasurer be directed to ascertain the location of the central office of the Howard Association, and when ascertained, to advise the president or directors of said association that the citizens of Portland have contributed $4,000 for the relief of the sick and suffering of the southwest; and ask such officer whether the money shall be remitted to him direct, to be expended under the direction of said association when most needed; or if thought best by such officer, that the money be distributed direct by this committee; to request that the most needy points and responsible persons therein be suggested.

On motion, the meeting adjourned until 7:30 o'clock this (Saturday) evening.

YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS—BENEFIT TENDERED.

Rev. Mr. Hewes, of San Francisco, who has traveled extensively in Palestine, will give a calcium light exhibition of views of the Holy Land next Tuesday evening, 10th instant, under the auspices of the Sabbath schools of the city, at Taylor street Methodist church, in aid of the yellow fever sufferers of the south. The proceeds of the lecture and exhibition will be devoted to this most humane and needful philanthropy. Tickets will be sold by the children of the Sabbath schools, and at Gill's book store. For adults, 50 cents; children under 12, 25 cents.

Mr. Hewes has just done a similar work in San Francisco. This illustrated lecture is spoken of in the highest terms where it has been given.

OPEN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.

The meeting of the Open Temperance Society on last Saturday evening, at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association, was an occasion of great interest. A very impressive address was delivered by Mr. Clinton. The poem entitled the "Drunkard's Wife's Lament," was splendidly recited by Miss Renicks. A beautiful piece of music was well rendered by Miss Holman, and a brief address of great power was made by Mrs. White. As the result of the meeting an unusually large number of new names were added to the pledge of total abstinence, many of them being leading young men of the city. An effort will be made to have the meeting this evening a like success. Addresses will be made by Rev. Mr. Griffin and other good speakers. Entertaining recitations will be given, several splendid pieces of music will be rendered by good musical artists, and no pains will be spared to make the occasion pleasant and profitable for all who may favor the organization with their presence. Strangers and those visiting the city, as well as citizens, are cordially invited.

Prefer SOZODONT to every other article for the teeth, because nothing renders those ornaments of the mouth so spotless, or imparts such an agreeable odor to the breath. Moreover, experience proves the article to be perfectly wholesome, which cannot be said of all dentifrices.

BY UNIVERSAL ACCORD, AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS are the best of all purgatives for family use. They are the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, and their extensive use by Physicians in their practice, and by all civilized nations, proves them the best and most effectual purgative Pill that medical science can devise. Being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use. THE STORY OF A LIFE

"Miss Cameron"

Leonie Cameron lazily looking out of a bow-window upon a garden flaming with autumn tints and sunset glow lifted a pair of dark eyes to Mrs Tollman's face It was an anxious face just at that moment and being usually full of happy content the anxiety was very apparent to Leonie So after her first careless glance she straightened herself in her low chair and said quietly yet with every appearance of interest—

"What is the matter"

An awkward pause followed that question Mrs Tollman fidgeted under the piercing glance of the dark eyes cleared her throat twice and finally said with nervous emphasis—

"John Furber"

Miss Cameron's face seemed to freeze It was a very beautiful face with pride for a leading expression Sweetness lurked in the mouth intellect beamed from the radiant dark eyes but pride shadowed all It carried the small head gracefully erect it swept the folds of the rich dress with a regal [illegible] It touched the small patrician hands [illegible] was evident in the well modulated tones of the refined voice

"There" Mrs Tollman said despairingly "I've made you mad already and have not said anything"

"I am not mad" Leonie answered and there certainly lurked a smile in her mouth at the good woman's consternation "But you have not told me what troubles you"

"It's—it's—John, Miss Cameron and"—then rapidly as if the words were forced by a fear of her own inability to finish her self appointed task she hurried on "He's my nephew, Miss as you know though his father is a rich man very rich and John is above his mother's place in her life She's dead and John was spoiled somewhere between the year she died and two years ago I don't know where he took to bad ways He was brought up an idler upon his father's money and from idleness to drinking gambling and bad ways is an easy road His father is a hard man and he thrust him out nearly a year ago and disinherited him He came here for I love him I've nothing else to love husband and children in the graveyard so I love John"

There was a piteous pleading in the woman's face but Leonie's was blank save for an air of polite interest

"He was almost desperate when he came here but I've coaxed him up a little But—but—Oh Miss Cameron you know what I want to say You are beautiful rich—a lady far above me in education and position and only staying here for country quiet I've no right to find fault but—but—don't flirt with John He is in trouble despondent, disinherited and he is falling in love with you as fast as he can I believe if you play with him he will kill himself body and soul"

Fairly out of breath with her own earnest utterance Mrs Tollman paused looking pleadingly in Leonie Cameron's face The expression of polite interest never wavered as that young lady said—

"If I understand you aright, you wish me to ignore your nephew It is not so easy as he is in your house, so I had better leave it"

"Goodness!" cried the widow aghast at this interpretation of her words "I never meant that Where can you find another boarding place near here?"

"I can return to London"

"I've put my foot in it John will never forgive me," said Mrs Tollman disconsolately

But there was no sympathy in Leonie's face, and she turned away at last perplexed and more anxious than ever And Leonie sinking back in her chair again looked at the sunset clouds and variegated foliage and thought perhaps it was time to return to London

She had come to S—— weary with a round of fashionable life tired of flattery dancing and flirting and she had found rest and quiet under Mrs. Tollman's motherly care She was rich richer far than the landlady had any idea of but she had no near relatives only a second cousin to keep her lonely home and play propriety

Society constituted itself her amateur guardian and lying back on her cushioned chair in the sunset glow she wondered indolently what society would say about John Furber It would grant him a rare perfection of manly beauty of face and form and forgive the evident traces of dissipation if it was only known that he was the son of a rich man and had been educated an idler by profession But in what holy horror it would turn away with uplifted hands when it was known he was disinherited with no home but a room in the house of a widowed aunt eking out her narrow income by taking boarders It would smile at his biting sarcasms his brilliant conversations his cynical sneers, if he was reinstated in his father's favor but how rude these would be in a poor man

Leonie from thinking of society's opinion, quite unconsciously glided into considering her own This dark browed man had made a fair portion of her summer pleasure for three months, had been her cavalier in many country walks drives and sails had quoted poetry under trees sung in a superb baritone upon the murmuring waters looked into her eyes on a moonlit porch and whispered delicately worded flattery No more than many another man had done A beauty and rich Miss Cameron had looked upon more than one languishing suitor and forgotten him when his amusement wearied her Scarcely a flirt—for she encouraged no down right love making, but a beautiful, fascinating woman who wounded hearts with merely careless grace

Musing in the sunset it impressed upon the proud heart that unconsciously she had poisoned a life that was already sinking There were capabilities for better things than dissipation and suicide in John Furber, and she shivered as she thought he might be upon some dangerous precipice waiting for the clasp of the hand to draw him back or its repulse to thrust him over She passed in review her host of male friends, and found none who had wakened her heart to hours of such keen pleasure as John Furber had given her She tried to recall one mind whose grasp of intellect had dwarfed her own as his had done, who had met her fairly in so many arguments and worsted her, and she could only remember soft flattery of her wonderful mind

Finally lifting her eyes with a soft sigh she saw him leaning against a tree opposite the low window looking at her A vivid flush stained her cheek as he said

"What can you have been thinking of? You have not stirred for half an hour Only that your eyes were wide open I should have thought you asleep"

"Your powers of observation are marvelous" she answered lightly "I was dreaming"

"Of what?"

"The world in general, my world in particular It is almost time I returned there"

She was prepared for some light show of regret, but not for the ghastly change in his face

She shuddered remembering his aunt's words

"Going away Why of course you would be [illegible]" he said trying to speak carelessly while his eyes hungrily devoured her face and the white parted lips were drawn as if [illegible]

[illegible] three months" she said, [illegible] at his misery [illegible] gently "you [illegible] I should be [illegible] take [illegible] I am a [illegible] father [illegible] scarcely [illegible] The [illegible] forehead as he [illegible] the whole world [illegible] the battle is scarcely [illegible] What will I gain? Money? [illegible] I have thrown [illegible] I have played the fool and I [illegible]

[illegible] she said [illegible] she had never intended to betray "You shall not uselessly throw away your life"

A hope sprang to his eyes now there lighting them to dazzling radiance

"Miss Cameron—Leonie" he cried "were there a prize to win were one's heart's hope centered upon me I would trample down these demons of temptation I would prove myself a man if I had any motive"

There was no mistaking the prayer in his eyes the pleading in his voice

Only for a moment close to the low window before a hand like a snow flake fell upon his shoulder a voice low and sweet murmured low in his ear

"Be a man for my sake"

She was gone before he spoke again and he wandered off to the woods to muse upon the possibility of this new life

The next day Mrs Tollman lost her summer boarder Society laughingly contemplating Miss Cameron for the next three years found her eccentric

She was gay and gracious by flashes fascinating in either mood but she was mysteriously unapproachable

The bravest suitor found himself met at the point where friendly attentions merge into lover's devotion by a wall of icy reserve that was impassable She never flirted but she had the reputation of a flirt because she was popular and admired and remained single until twenty seven She was known to be truthful and she had distinctly told several inquisitive lady friends that she was not engaged so there was not even the spice of romance in the gossip

S—— knew her not in those three years but Mrs Tollman was the recipient of various hampers of city delicacies from her and would acknowledge the same by letter

One of these dated three years after the beautiful Miss Cameron left S—— after elaborately thanking that young lady for a hamper of dainties added—

"Do you remember my nephew John Furber? He left me the day after you did and I fretted more than a little But he took a turn for good, heaven be thanked He worked himself up and to day he writes me he has made friends with his father again and is to be taken partner in a commercial house His father's to buy it but John's earned a place too by hard honest work Oh my dear I'm happier than I ever thought to be Perhaps you've heard of the house in London that John is in But I'll tire you writing about my affairs I wouldn't only I thought perhaps you'll remember John"

"In London," Leonie murmured "so near me all these years and yet never seeking me Was I too bold? Did I drive him away by showing him my heart too plainly Well even so I am glad I gave him the first start toward an honorable manhood Remember him? Yes Mrs Tollman, I do remember John"

She had folded the letter and was dressing for the opera when a visitor was announced

"What a barbarous hour" she murmured not looking at the card "In a few moments Jane"

She was robed in her fleecy dress of white lace over pale blue silk had clasped diamonds on throat and wrists and in the little ears when as she took the opera cloak from the maid's hand, she looked at the card—

"John Furber"

A great heart throb sent the blood over her brow and neck then it faded, leaving only a soft tint upon the fair cheeks and in the dark eyes a light of happiness harmonizing well with the smiling lips

She looked like some visitant from another world in the radiance of her beauty as she came across the wide drawing room to the window where he stood

He had not heard her light step but he turned when she was near showing the stamp of his better life in his noble face

He held out his hand looking earnestly into her face and seeing she only spoke a happy truth as taking it she said

"I am glad to see you"

"Leonie" he said "you gave me a hope three years ago that has borne me above temptation and suffering to a position where I am not ashamed to look any man in the face Leonie you bade me—"

Blushing brightly she took up the words as he paused—

"To be a man John for my sake"

"And I obeyed you my love my darling I have come for my reward Leonie loving you with all my heart, daring now to ask for your love in return"

So society had a ripple of sensation in a fashionable wedding when John Furber married Miss Leonie Cameron

But only you and I reader, know the romance of the summer in S——, of how John Furber redeemed his manhood for Leonie's sake
